Most church goers will say they believe the Bible, but the question is what Bible? If pinned down to specific answers, they will discount the Old Testament about 90%. They are skeptical of its history and they give no credence to its miracles. They know only utter confusion as to its prophecies and they reject its laws as being repudiated by the New Testament. For their beauty of language, they will accept the Psalms, those which are not controversial. Any verse is accepted which could not offend even the most wicked, but they reject all the others which sternly call the Christian to the duties he wants to evade. Ask them, what else? and they can point to nothing, they will say they are New Testament Christians.

What about the New Testament? Challenge them to produce from it the basis of their faith. They will confidently assert several doctrines, but be hard put to find the source of them in the New Testament. They were told that these are Christian. In fact, no one can find certain of these doctrines in the Bible, for the real author of a number of doctrines now being taught as Christian is not Matthew, John, Mark, Peter, Luke nor Paul, but Karl Marx, son of a rabbi. Some of the most monstrous evils of the age, cancers which have recently sprung up to attack the very existence of our civilization and our race are world government ruled by pagan and satanic powers. Destruction of the white race by integration and mongrelization, are now being taught by many in the name, falsely taken, of religion. They are being taught it as a so-called Christian duty to destroy everything that has made us great and brought civilization to the world. In its place, to enthrone in power, everything evil and debasing, against which we have had to fight throughout the centuries. Only a rejection of the Bible can account for this, for it does not really come out of the New Testament. Its real purpose is to destroy the laws given by Yahweh.

People who have been misled into the belief that the New Testament repealed all of Yahweh's laws, nullified His promises and discarded His prophecies, are really saying that the Old Testament is just the record of Yahweh's mistakes. He finally had to abandon these mistakes and make a fresh start on something He was able to handle. You can't found a religion on a God who was too mistaken to know He was wrong, and too weak to carry out His will. If that belief about the Old Testament were true, we would have no religion. Since it is false, then it is time we got rid of it.

Christianity is not something new, resting upon the empty air without foundation, it is based upon the solid bedrock of Yahweh's purpose before time began. Its foundations are Moses and Elijah, David and Isaiah, Ezekiel and Daniel, the Old Testament as well as the New. It is because we have lost these foundations that today many try to build the shaky structure of their belief on shifting sands. We find they have built juvenile delinquency and racial suicide through integration at home, and a foreign policy containing far too much cowardice and treason. Because of this, we have retreated for many years before the advance of Communism. We have bleated about our Christian duty to coexist with evil, on terms dictated by Satan. By coexisting we negotiate agreements to put all civilization completely under the rule of barbarians and outright savages. Before these disasters extinguish all the light we ever had, it is time to reexamine the whole problem, to again find our lost foundations.

What Bible? All of it, both New and Old Testaments, it is all one book and no man can understand either half without the other. There is just as much Christianity in the Old Testament as in the New, though it is harder to find because there it still looked to the future to events which then had not yet happened. It appears in the Old Testament in the form of prophecies, rituals and symbols, when you understand these, it is all there.

The best proof of the genuineness of the Old Testament is the fact that the New Testament fulfilled all that the Old Testament had prophesied and promised. The best proof of the genuineness of the New Testament is that it is the fulfillment of the Old. Yahshua used and relied on this as the proof of His identity. Yahshua told his listeners, recorded in John 5:39, “Search the scriptures: for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and it is they which testify of Me.” Then in John 5:46-47 Yahshua continues, “For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed Me: for he wrote of Me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe My words?” Luke 16:29-31 continues the story. “They have Moses and the prophets: let them hear them. If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead.”

After Yahshua rose from the dead, and talked with two of His disciples, He still used this as proof of His identity. He said in Luke 24:25, 27, “O fools and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, He expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning Himself.” When Yahshua told His listeners to search the scriptures, He referred them to the Old Testament. The earliest book of the New Testament was not written until 7 years after this time, and the rest of it not until 24 to 66 years later.

What part of the Old Testament should we take as our foundation, the prophets, of course, the law, yes! Perhaps you have been seriously misled about the law, you were told it was abolished by the New Testament, absolutely not! The individual no longer relies upon keeping Old Testament law for his personal salvation, Yahshua bought this for us, upon the cross. Neither do you expect to gain your salvation by obeying the laws of the United States, the state of California, or the city in which you live. But, do you believe that these laws serve no purpose and have been abolished? The laws of Yahweh are still in force and still serve the same purpose, to guide the nation, the family and the individual to peace, prosperity and happiness. Our present troubles are caused by our violation of Yahweh’s eternal laws.

Yahshua said in Matthew 5:17-19, “Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore, shall break one of these least commandments and shall teach men so, he shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.” It is still true, as the prophet Hosea warned us. Yahweh tells us in Hosea 4:6: “ My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to Me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.”

Do you say you were told that Yahshua abolished the law, nailing it to His cross, then you were told something wrong. The two verses you refer to are Colossians 2:14 and Ephesians 2:15 and both of them speak only of that part of the law contained in ordinances. These were the rules of the religious ceremonies pertaining to the feast days, the sacrifices and offerings. These were done away with because they expressed the believer’s faith that Yahshua would come to save him sometime in the future.

After Yahshua had already come, the believer must not reject Him by proclaiming that he was still waiting for a future coming, so these ordinances were abolished. But it is still just as true as ever that, thou shalt not murder, thou shalt not steal and thou shalt not commit adultery. The rest of the law is still in effect, to keep peace, honesty and justice in the land. Until we all know and enforce Yahweh’s Laws, we shall continue to have our present troubles.

Because I am myself a lawyer, I can understand the perfection of Yahweh’s system of laws, as compared to any man made laws in the world. I can see how Yahweh’s laws, if firmly enforced by our governments, would clear up our troubles. I believe it is of the greatest importance that you also should know this whole system of divine law. It covers all the economic laws for prosperity, all the agricultural and dietary laws for health, all the political laws for worldwide power and respect in times of peace and for survival and victory in war. It covers the laws for immigration and naturalization and for the selection of the leaders who are to govern us, all the rules to bring and preserve a high civilization.

From time to time in these lessons, I will tell you in detail of these laws and how they would benefit you if they were put in force.

Critical note by Clifton A. Emahiser: Comparet is correct about when we face people up to various key passages in the Bible, they will reject the true context of what is being said. For instance, if one will quote Malachi 1:2-3 to them: “ Was not Esau Jacob’s brother? saith Yahweh: yet I loved Jacob, And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.” One churchified person I cited this passage to answered: “Well, God didn’t really hate Esau, he just didn’t love Esau as much as he did Jacob.” These people are inclined to establish their own personal criteria on what they think the Bible should say, and then interpret it out-of-context. They will in turn go to several other passages and take them out-of-context in order to support their faulty interpretation of the original one.

If Christ Himself were living among us today, as He did in Judaea during the 1st century, He would be accused of being politically incorrect and would be banished from our churches, and told never to return. All we need do is check Christ’s own red-letter words at Matthew 13:47-50 (and I will amplify it so there will be not doubt as to the context), The following rendition of Matt. 13:47-50 does absolutely no violence to this passage:

“<sup>47</sup> Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea [of people], and gathered of every race:<sup>48</sup> Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good [racial kind] into vessels, but cast the bad [racial kind] away.<sup>49</sup> So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,<sup>50</sup> And shall cast them [the bad racial kind] into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

The entire Bible, both New and Old Testaments are about race, and today's Christians have been mesmerized into believing that desegregation is Christian, while it is actually satanic. Sadly, even in Israel Identity today, many support the satanic agenda thinking they are doing God a favor!
