Many people today have a strange feeling that many things in the world are not right, but they don't seem to be able to put their finger on just what the problems might be. For them, things simply don't add up. They wonder why there are so many wars and police actions, and, yet, no one ever seems to win. They continue day-to-day with their nose to the grindstone, but simply cannot get ahead no matter how hard they try. It seems like it's always one step forward and two steps backward. One gets the feeling one is on a treadmill, going through a lot of motion, but never going anywhere. Do we dare ask the question: is there something out there somewhere we don't know about?

Yes, there is something out there, and its so cleverly concealed less than one in one thousand can detect it. As a matter of fact, its right under our noses everywhere we turn and we deal with it every day of our lives. Try as we will, we can't get away from it, and it effects every phase of our lives. So we ask: why can't we see it then?

The reason we can't see it is because its one of the oldest tricks in the world. To explain it, let's think of it this way: Suppose we were to play a game of football and both teams wore the same style and color of uniform. What kind of a football game are we going to have? Suppose we were in a war and everyone wore the same style uniform. What kind of a war would we have? If it were a football game, everyone would be tackling their own players. If it were a war, everyone would be shooting their own men.

Strange as it might seem, this is exactly what is going on in the world today. The problem is: the opposing side has figured out how to secretly identify their own players and our side hasn't. With this kind of odds, what kind of football game or war are we going to have? That's right, you've already guessed it, everything is stacked against us and our side doesn't stand a snowball-in-hell's chance.

This type of deceptive camouflage is so old it is spoken of in the Bible, Matthew 7:15; 10:16; Luke 10:3; John 10:11-12; Acts 20:29, as "wolves in sheep's clothing." That's right, both sides look like sheep. Now wolves, by their very nature, love to kill and eat sheep. Do you suppose, if the sheep can ever become smart enough to identify the wolves, would they possibly stand a chance of winning this football game or war? For the wolves, it's no football game, for they fully intend to destroy every last sheep.

How, then, can the sheep begin to identify the wolves? This is really an almost impossible task, for the wolves have been running a two thousand year propaganda campaign to make the sheep believe the wolves are also sheep. Oddly enough, the identity of the wolves can be found in a very unusual place, Josephus, Wars 2:8:2. Josephus, strips the sheep's clothing from off the wolf and leaves the naked wolf exposed for what he is. Here is what Josephus says:

“ For there are three philosophical sects among the Judeans. The followers of the first of whom are the Pharisees; of the second the Sadducees; and the third sect, who pretends to a severer discipline, are called Essens. These last are Judah by birth, and seem to have a greater affection for one another than the other sects have.”

What in the world is Josephus saying here? Does Josephus mean there were some Judahites who are not Judahites by birth? Well, that seems to be what he is saying, and he should know for he lived right there among them during that time. If what Josephus is saying here is true, it really throws a monkey-wrench into this whole thing, doesn't it? After this statement by Josephus, is there any way we can make any sense of this thing? For, from this, it would appear there are some Judahites who are sheep and some other Judahites who are wolves. Well, let's take a stab at it.

For a moment, let's very carefully analyze what Josephus is saying here: Josephus is implying that the Pharisees and Sadducees were not of the tribe of Judah by birth, but the Essens were. This is quite enlightening, for it is pointing out that the Pharisees and Sadducees were not kindred to the Messiah, but the Essens were. Well, this goes contrary to everything we have been taught, doesn't it? Maybe, instead of trusting the so-called adepts, we should take time to carefully examine this thing for ourselves!

It would appear the only way we are going to make any logic out of this confusion is to go back to the beginning of the story of Judah. According to the Bible, we are told Judah was the fourth son of Jacob-Israel. Judah, we are informed, married a Canaanite woman by the name of Shuah. By her, Judah had three children, Er, Onan and Shelah. The Almighty killed Er and Onan leaving only Shelah. Upon the death of Judah's wife, Shuah, Judah's intended daughter-in-law, Tamar, dressed up like a whore and enticed Judah to father a set of twins by her named Pharez and Zerah. Because Judah was an eligible widower and Tamar was unwed (marriage not consummated with Er or Onan), the union could not be considered illicit. From the Pharez line came the Messiah. Thus, there were three branches of Judah, (1) Pharez, (2) Zerah, and (3) Shelah. Therefore there were Pharez-Judahites; Zerah-Judahites and Shelanite-Judahites.

The Judahites who were the scribes, Pharisees and Sadducees at the time of the Messiah, for the most part, were Shelanite-Judahites from Judah's first wife, Shuah the Canaanite. This demands another question to be asked: who were the Canaanites?

The word "Canaan" is the name of the fourth son of Ham on whom Noah placed a curse. Being cursed, Canaan was kicked out of the family and mixed among other tribes. Eventually these Canaanites became ten interrelated and racially-mixed nations listed in Genesis 15:19-21 as: (1) Kenites, (2) Kenizzites, (3) Kadmonites, (4) Hittites, (5) Perrizzites, (6) Rephaims, (7) Amorites, (8) Canaanites, (9) Girgashites, (10) Jebusites.

As the Kenites are mentioned first, let's see who they were. Checking the Strong's Concordance, we find the Kenites listed as #7017. Going to the Strong's Hebrew dictionary under #7017 and #7014, we discover the Kenites are descendants of, and named after Cain. Thus, we find the scribe-Pharisee-Sadducee-Shelomite-Judahites, at the time of Messiah, were actually of the cursed bloodline of Cain. What a sticky-wicket this has turned out to be! And, hardly anyone is aware of this not-so-well-known fact!

Is it possible that Messiah was correct when He accused the Shelomite-Judahite Pharisees and Sadducees of being guilty of all the righteous blood from Abel to Zacharias, Matthew 23:35 and Luke 11:51? If this is true, we have a whole different kind of war going on in our world today than the majority of people have any idea.

WHAT ARE THE IMPLICATIONS THEN?

As usual, we must go back to the beginning of the story, and the only way we can properly understand world events of today is to see where the war started. It is all spelled out in Genesis 3:15 where the Almighty made the following declaration:

“ And I will put enmity [mutual hatred] between thee [the serpent] and the woman, and between thy seed [the serpent's offspring] and her seed [the woman's offspring]; it [the woman's offspring] shall bruise thy [the serpent's] head, and thou [the serpent's offspring] shalt bruise his heel.”

The word “seed” is zera in Hebrew and is translated sperma in Greek and means offspring or issue. You can see that our English word sperm is a spin-off of the Greek word sperma. When we speak of sperm, we are talking about genetics. The word Adam, #119, #120, and #121 in the Hebrew means ruddy; to show blood in the face; flush; rosy, a trait found only in white people. (“Seed” is used in a singular sense, meaning a single variety of seed.) Therefore, the war in Genesis 3:15 is a genetic, seedline war. It is a war between the seedline of the serpent through Cain vs. the seedline of the woman through Seth. It cannot be overemphasized that this war is to the death of one side or the other, as the two simply cannot coexist. Once we understand these things, we can begin to see who the opposing forces are in this war, and can start to distinguish the wolves from the sheep.

THE WOLVES' AGENDA

By natural genetics, the wolves will continue to destroy the sheep until there are no more sheep left. War is one of the devices which the wolves use to destroy the sheep. By manufacturing an incident to foment the sheep, the wolves can finance both sides of a war and get the sheep to kill each other. Therefore, the wolves have financed the Napoleonic wars; the American Civil War; World Wars I and II; the Korean War; the Vietnam War and all the so-called police actions under the United Nations since. The wolves are the authors of Communism and have slaughtered approximately one hundred and forty million people worldwide since the Bolshevik revolution in 1917. The wolves financed the Bolshevik revolution from the financial district within New York city. During the early years of the Soviet Union, the wolves killed and starved to death twenty million Ukrainian sheep-people of the seedline of the woman.

The wolf-people have other ways of restricting the population of the sheep-people. By causing financial recessions and depressions, the wolves have made it financially difficult for the sheep-people to raise families, thus retarding any increase in their population. Yet another stratagem employed by the wolf-people is to destroy the sheep by abortion and birth control. If all this is not bad enough, one of the items on the wolves' agenda is to breed the sheep-people out of existence through interbreeding them with non-sheep-people. And, because homosexuals and lesbians don't have children the wolves have promoted this kind of lifestyle among the sheep. The wolves have gone so far as to infiltrate the sheep-people's churches in order to convince the sheep-people that it is "Christian" and politically correct to promote the wolf-people's agenda. To insure the success of their sheep-killing program, the wolves have wormed themselves into the sheep-people's education system in order to poison the minds of the sheep-people's little lambs.

Today, almost every aspect of the world is controlled by the wolves. We have a wolf-controlled monetary system; a wolf-controlled political system; a wolf-controlled religious system along with wolf-controlled news, movies, TV, and books. In the United States today, the wolves have manipulated themselves into every branch of government to maintain their wolf-program of destroying sheep-people. With such an evil program, one can begin to see why the wolves would want to appear as sheep! Messiah declared: "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep-people of the house of Israel", Matthew 15:24.
